

Press Release

Winnipeg Jets Win League Championship

Team Wins First Avco World Trophy

April 14, 2008: The Winnipeg Jets are the National Fantasy Hockey League 2007-08 Champions. . On the foundation of strong goaltending the Jets in their 10th season have won their first Avco World Trophy. The Hershey Headhunters placed second overall and also won their fourth Patrick Division Championship in five years. Sixty five teams participated in the 2007-08 Season the largest in league history.

2008 NFHL Draft Lottery June 20th

Compensation and Draft Lottery Winners To Be Selected

April 14, 2008: The NFHL Draft Lottery will take place on June 20th in conjunction with the NHL Draft. The NFHL will select a NFHL Draft Lottery winner with odds based on season end standings. The winner will receive free entry for the 2008-09 Season. The team with the worst record will have 5% chance of winning the lottery. The top 16 overall finishers will have be eligible for the "Compensation Lottery" also based on season end standings. The League Champion will have a 10% of winning the lottery will the 16th place team will have a 2.5% chance.